

1 Boeing employees were given new badges during the past year, requiring Shared Services staff to update the photographs of each employee.

2 Boeing employees participate in a variety of activities after work in some of 300 recreation clubs sponsored by the company and managed through Shared Services. These employees are part of the Boeing Roller Hockey League of Hazelwood, Mo.

3 The Assessments group in Shared Services works with hiring managers to assist them in developing interview and testing processes. Assessments staff members Peg Morris (from left), Kathy Chmura and Joan Glaman conduct an interview in Bellevue, Wash., with a job candidate who is facing them.

4 Facilities technician Michael Schirman monitors calibration and viability of power output from the back-up power generators, while Donn Vey (background) checks inside a control panel in support of the Boeing Data Center in Bellevue, Wash.

5 Boeing receptionist Jill Facwett provides directions to a visitor from the lobby desk at the 2-25 Building in Seattle.
