IN A CHILD'S EYES WE SEE ONLY POSSIBILITIES.

They have a hunger to know.

They are an open book to experience.

They are absolutely overflowing with hope. Children are the very definition of possibility. We honor

those, educators and parents,

who see possibility as one of life's greatest opportunities.

This ad, from the Boeing portfolio of Community ads, underscores Boeing's ongoing corporate commitment to education by honoring those who recognize and nurture the potential in our children. The ad is published in support of appropriate special events and community programs.
